

SOUTH CENTRAL COMMUNITY ACTION PARTNERSHIP, INC.

BY-LAWS

Revised September 17, 2020

Signed by Board Secretary

ARTICLE I

Name and Purpose

The name of this corporation shall be the South Central Community Action Partnership, Inc., hereinafter referred to as SCCAP. The SCCAP is a private non-profit corporation whose purpose is to provide those services now beyond the reach and otherwise to assist disadvantaged and economically deprived individuals and to work toward the provisions of decent housing affordable to low and median income persons enabling them to obtain the skills, knowledge, and motivations, and to secure the opportunities needed for them to become fully self-sufficient. The SCCAP shall act as the official Community Action Partnership for Blaine, Camas, Cassia, Gooding, Jerome, Lincoln, Minidoka and Twin Falls Counties.

The SCCAP is established to provide a focal point for anti-poverty efforts in the aforementioned geographical areas. The purpose and functions of the corporation shall include the following:

- To provide for maximum feasible participation of the economically disadvantaged in planning, development and operation of anti-poverty programs.
- To develop, conduct and administer anti-poverty programs.
- To encourage, stimulate and assist in the development of anti-poverty action projects by public agencies, non-profit voluntary organizations or indigenous poverty groups.
- To mobilize public and private resources in support of anti-poverty programs.
- To coordinate efforts throughout the area served to avoid duplication and improve delivery of services.
- To serve as an advocate of the economically disadvantaged on matters of public policy which affect their lives and promote desirable social and institutional changes.

ARTICLE II

Offices

The corporation shall have and continuously maintain a registered office as is required by the Idaho Non-Profit Corporation Act Idaho Code Title 30, Chapter 30. The registered office may be, but need not be, identical with the principal office and may be change from time to time by the Board of Directors.

The location of the registered office and other offices which the affairs of the corporation may require from time to time shall be determined by the Board of Directors, by a two-thirds vote, at a meeting in which at least a quorum is present.

ARTICLE III

Membership

SECTION I

Board of Directors Composition

The Board of Directors shall have eighteen (18) members. Membership will be distributed equally among three Regions into which the geographic area has been divided according to the following criteria:

- A. Region I will consist of Twin Falls County. Six members of the Board will come from Region I. Two of the members will be County Commissioners, or their representatives. Two of the members will be persons democratically chosen to represent the economically disadvantaged. The remaining two members will be representatives of business, industry, labor, religious, welfare or other private groups or interests.
- B. Region II will consist of Cassia and Minidoka Counties. Six members of the Board will come from Region II. One County Commissioner, or his/her representative, will represent Cassia County and one County Commissioner, or his/her representative, will represent Minidoka County. The four remaining members, two democratically chosen to represent the economically disadvantaged and two representing private groups and interests, will come from anywhere within the Region.
- C. Region III will consist of Blaine, Camas, Gooding, Jerome and Lincoln Counties. Six members of the Board will come from Region III. Two County Commissioners, or their representatives, will be designated to represent all of the Counties within the Region. The remaining four members, two democratically chosen to represent the economically disadvantaged and two representing private groups and interests, will come from anywhere within the Region.

SECTION II

Selection of the Board of Directors

A. Public Officials

The County Commissioners of the Counties comprising the three Regions served by SCCAP shall designate two elected public officials to serve on the Board, except that in Region II the County Commissioners from Cassia County will designate one elected official to serve and the County Commissioners from Minidoka County will designate one elected public official to serve. Each elected public official designated to serve on the Board may choose one permanent representative to serve on the Board, full-time, in his/her place. These representatives need not be public officials themselves, but they shall have full authority to act for the public officials whom they represent at meetings of the Board.

If a designated County Commissioner chooses not to become a member, or to designate a representative to become a member, the slot will remain open so that the Commissioner, or another designated elected public official, may later have the option of participating.

B. Representatives of Low-Income Residents

Economically disadvantaged residents of each Region will be represented by two members serving two-year staggered terms. An annual election will be held in each Region in June to elect one representative from each Region. The CSBG Program Director, under the supervision of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), will be responsible for assuring that the low income elections are properly held in each region according to the Federal/State law.

C. Representatives of Private Sector

The private sector of each Region will be represented by two representatives serving two-year staggered terms. The Board shall draw representation from private entities within the community.

The Board of Directors will select an individual from the private sector to be represented on the Board. The members who serve on the Board in each Region will annually select one private sector individual, to assure that the Board will benefit from broad community involvement. The selected private sector individual, will serve for a period of two years so that each Region will be represented by two (2) private sector representatives, with staggered terms.

SECTION III

Alternates

Non-elected representatives of public officials may not select alternates to substitute for them because they are already acting as agents for public officials. Since these representatives are not alternates, they may serve as officers of the Board.

SECTION IV
Limitations on Board Service

Public officials, or their representatives, serve at the pleasure of the designating County Commissioners and as long as the public official is currently holding office. Representatives of the economically disadvantaged and of the private sector may serve up to sixteen (16) consecutive years. In the case of the alternate, any time spent acting on behalf of a regular member shall not be counted.

A period of twelve (12) months must transpire between periods of consecutive service in order for an additional period of service to be considered non-consecutive.

SECTION V
Residence of Members

Each member of the Board must reside or work in the Region they represent.

SECTION VI
Conflict of Interest

- A. Board members must identify any potential conflict of interest and may not be involved in any participation, including debate and decision making, which deals with the conflict of interest.
- B. No employee of the SCCAP may serve on the Board.

SECTION VII
Vacancies

There is a vacancy on the Board when a member has missed two consecutive board meetings without being excused, has been notified of his/her removal by action of the Board, when a member notifies the Board of his/her resignation, when the designating officials remove a public official or when a public official leaves office.

When the seat of a public official is vacant, the Board shall ask the designated officials to select another public official to fill the seat.

When the seat of a private representative is vacant, the Board shall recruit a new private representative to fill out the term. The Governance Committee shall review new applications and make a recommendation to the full board for action.

When the seat of a representative of the low-income is vacant, an election will be held in a timely manner in order to elect a new representative to serve the remainder of the term.

SECTION VIII

Removal

Public officials, or their representatives, may be removed from the Board only by designating officials. Representatives of the low-income and private sectors may be removed from the Board for the following reasons:

- 1) Conduct which intentionally jeopardizes the well-being of SCCAP, any of its programs or its participants.
- 2) Failure to attend three board meetings during a calendar year.

In any removal, the affected representative shall be given at least fifteen (15) days written notice prior to the date of proposed removal, which shall contain the reasons for the proposed removal. The affected representative shall then have an opportunity to be heard, orally or in writing, at least five (5) days prior to the effective date of the proposed removal. This hearing shall be heard by the Board of Directors. A vote to remove a member shall require a two-thirds vote of a quorum at a regular meeting. The resulting vacancy will be filled in accordance with Article III Section VII.

ARTICLE IV Meetings

SECTION I

Annual Meeting

An annual meeting shall be held during the month of July for the purpose of seating new Board members, electing officers and for the transaction of such business as may come before the meeting. By written or electronic notice to the members, the date of the annual meeting may be changed, but not more than thirty (30) days from the above date.

SECTION II

Regular Meetings

The SCCAP shall hold regular meetings on the third Thursday at 12:00 noon in January, March, May, September, November and in July (the annual meeting) when an alternate date and meeting time will be set. Special meetings or change of regular meeting date and/or time may be held at any time on the call of the Chairperson or 25% of the members of the Board of Directors. The call or request shall specify the time, place and object of the meeting, giving no fewer than ten (10) days' notice or if notice is mailed by other than first class or registered mail, thirty (30) days, nor more than sixty (60) days before the meeting date.

SECTION III
Place of Meetings

The Board of Directors may designate any place within the SCCAP area as the place of any regular, annual or special meeting.

SECTION IV
Quorum

A quorum for the meeting of the Board of Directors shall be at least fifty percent (50%) of the non-vacant seats present or that at least fifty percent (50%) of the Executive Committee be present. If less than a quorum of the Directors are present at a meeting the majority of the Directors present may adjourn the meeting without further notice.

SECTION V
Voting Procedures

A majority of votes cast by those members present shall decide all issues, unless otherwise provided by the By-Laws. Proxy voting is not permitted. Each Board member will have one vote. Ex Officio Board members will have no voting privileges and their presence will not be a determination in meeting a quorum.

SECTION VI
Action by Written Consent

Any action by the Board or Committees may be taken without a meeting if all Directors individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such consent documents shall be made a part of the minutes for regular meetings of the Board. Electronic communications shall be considered written consent, and copies of emails or other electronic consents shall be maintained as part of the corporate record.

SECTION VII
Open Meetings

The meetings of the Board of Directors shall be open to the Public and all decisions of the Board shall be made in an open meeting. The Board of Directors may go into Executive Session when required to discuss confidential matters.

SECTION VIII
Excused Absence at Board Meetings

A board member shall be considered excused from a board meeting by the member notifying by phone or email to the CEO, CFO or Administrative Assistant, prior to the scheduled meeting their inability to attend.

ARTICLE V

SECTION II Election and Term of Office

The officers of the corporation shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at the annual meeting of the Board. If the election of officers shall not be held at such meetings, such elections shall be held as soon thereafter as conveniently may be. New offices may be created and filled at any meeting of the Board of Directors. Each officer shall hold office until the successor shall have been duly elected. There will be a limit of two (2) consecutive one-year terms. New members may not qualify to serve as officers of the Board until they've served on the Board for at least 1 year.

SECTION III Removal

Any officer elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed from office by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the quorum of the Board of Directors whenever, in its judgment, the interests of the corporation would be served thereby.

SECTION IV Vacancies

A vacancy in any office, because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or otherwise, may be filled for the unexpired portion of the term, according to Article III, Section II.

SECTION V Chairperson

The chairperson shall be the principal executive officer of the corporation and shall, in general, supervise and control all of the business and affairs of the corporation. He/She shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors; sign, with the Secretary or any other proper officer of the corporation authorized by the Board of Directors, deeds mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be delegated by the Board of Directors or by these By-Laws or by statute to some other officer or agent of the corporation; and in general shall perform all duties significant to the office of Chairperson and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time. He/She shall be a member of all committees and shall be the chairperson of the Executive Committee. The Chairperson shall serve no more than two (2) consecutive full terms of office; however, he/she shall be eligible for reelection after the interval of one (1) year. A member who is elected to fill an unexpired term of a Chairperson shall be eligible for two (2) full terms following completion of the unexpired term. The Chairperson shall name all committees that are necessary. The annual evaluation of the CEO shall be performed by the Board Chair and the Governance Committee, and be completed within sixty days of the new fiscal year. The Governance Committee and the Board Chair shall determine the process and written forms used to accomplish the evaluation. An executive summary shall be made available to the Board of Directors while meeting in executive session.

SECTION VI

Vice-Chairperson

In the absence of the Chairperson, or in the event of his/her inability or refusal to act, the Vice-Chairperson shall perform the duties of the Chairperson and, when so acting, shall have the powers of and be subject to all restrictions upon the Chairperson. The Vice-Chairperson shall perform such duties as, from time to time, may be assigned to him/her by the Chairperson or by the Board of Directors.

SECTION VII

Treasurer

The Treasurer shall see that the financial records of the corporation are fully, accurately and currently maintained. He/She shall cause financial reports and other materials to be submitted for the Board's information and be responsible to see that these reports are sent to appropriate officials. The Treasurer shall, in general, perform all of the duties incidental to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as, from time to time, may be assigned to him/her by the Chairperson or by the Board of Directors.

SECTION VIII

Secretary

The Secretary shall review and sign the minutes of the meeting of the members and of the Board of Directors. The Secretary shall be familiar with and maintain a current copy of the By-Laws at board meetings and perform such duties as from time to time that may be assigned to him/her by the Chairman or the Board of Directors. The Administrative Secretary shall see that all meeting notices are duly notified in accordance with the provisions of these By-Laws or as required by law be the custodian of the corporation records and of the seal of the corporation and see that the seal of the corporation is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these By-Laws; keep a register of the address of each Board member.

ARTICLE VII

Committees

SECTION I

ARTICLE XVIII

Indemnification

SECTION I

Under the provisions of Idaho Code, Title 30, Chapter 30, Part 6, Section 626, SCCAP shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner that he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

SECTION II

The indemnification provided hereunder shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of persons entitled to indemnification hereunder. The right of indemnification under this Article shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which any person may be entitled.

SECTION III

No amendment or repeal of the provisions of this Article which adversely affects the right of an indemnified person under this Article shall apply to such person with respect to those acts or omissions which occurred at any time prior to such amendment or repeal, unless such amendment or repeal was voted by or was made with the written consent of such indemnified person.

SECTION IV

This Article constitutes a contract between SCCAP and the indemnified officers, directors, and employees. No amendment or repeal of the provisions of this Article which adversely affects the right of an indemnified officer, director, or employee under this Article shall apply to such officer, director, or employee with respect to those acts or omissions which occurred at any time prior to such amendment or repeal
